

The teaching team

- Fabien ANSELMET, Professor at Centrale Méditerranée performing his research activities in the IRPHE lab <https://www.irphe.fr/~ansel/>
- Michel BENOIT, Professor at Centrale Méditerranée performing his research activities in the IRPHE lab <https://www.irphe.fr/?q=fr/users/benoit-michel>
- Olivier BOIRON, Professor at Centrale Méditerranée performing his research activities in the IRPHE lab <https://www.irphe.fr/~boiron/>
- Christophe ELOY, Professor at Centrale Méditerranée performing his research activities in the IRPHE lab <https://www.irphe.fr/~eloy/> are in charge of most of the teaching activities and management/tutoring of the projects. Other academics from Centrale Méditerranée are also involved in teaching activities (this is particularly the case for the elective courses which are proposed by other options).

Other academics from Aix-Marseille University and Avignon University, as well engineers from industry and research centres (Air Liquide, CEA, ONERA, PSA, ...), are also involved either in teaching or in project tutoring.
